welcome back students & faculty

The City of Orange City and all of our citizens are happy to welcome you to our schools and our community this fall. Our merchants are ready to serve you with the finest merchandise and dependable service to help make your school year an enjoyable experience. Stop in to visit with us, we enjoy meeting you!

Caution: Our children will be walking and bicycling to and from school on sidewalks and painted, designated walkways. Please drive with care when entering our school route zones. Parents, please instruct your children to the safest and best routes to travel to school.

beyond onstage 2015-16

Orange City Arts follows the summer of shows in the park, Onstage Orange City, with a series at Unity Knight Center and Northwestern College Chapel this fall and winter. It's Beyond Onstage.

The shows are world-class, beginning with Kate Davis, who MTV lists as one of 15 fresh females in the pop world. Her version of "All About that Bass" has had 13 million hits on YouTube. Kate and her band perform Sept. 18 at Unity Knight Center.

On Sept. 30 we're bringing Timothy's Gift, a six-woman a cappella ensemble that performed on NBC's Sing Off. Now they do a prison ministry. See them at Northwestern's Chapel.

Buy your season passes by Sept. 18 at Dove Bookstore, OC Arts, or online at orangecityarts.net/beyond-onstage-2015-2016. Individual tickets are $12 adult and $8 student (at door: $15, $10). A season pass (5 shows including The Nutcracker) are $45 adult and $30 student. More info at orangecityarts.net.

do you have HHM in your house

Orange City and Alton household residents (sorry no businesses) will again have an opportunity to safely discard those household hazardous materials (HHM). On Wednesday, September 23rd, the Cities of Orange City, Alton, and the NW IA Area Landfill will co-sponsor a HHM Recycling event from 4 – 6 pm at the Orange City Street

Department building. This building is located just behind the old Alco store. The address is 809 Concord Place SE. Acceptable items include:

- degreaser
- lacquers/thinners
- pesticides/herbicides
- waxes/polishes
- caustic cleaners
- oil based paints (latex paints will be assessed a $1/gal. fee.)
- solvents
- stain removers

Go to www.nwialandfill.com/hhm for a complete list of acceptable/unacceptable items.

Hispanic Heritage Month

As our community grows more diverse, we would like to celebrate that diversity. Hispanic cultures are rich and varied, and Hispanics contribute to our community and the United States as a whole. Hispanic Heritage Month is celebrated every year from September 15 to October 15. We have some exciting events and activities for all ages planned! Check our website and Facebook page in the coming weeks for more information. Here's just a taste of what we have in the works:

- Cook your way through the month recipe booklet with a food tasting event
- Book club discussion—The House on Mango Street
- Virtual and physical poetry gardens
- Take-and-make crafts

Back to School Technology Classes for Students, Teachers, and Parents

- Ebooks for All Ages - Sept. 1 @ 6:30 pm
- Research Resources - Sept. 15 @ 6:30 pm
- Careers and Education - Sept. 29 @ 6:30 pm

thanks for your support

The Orange City Public Library would like to thank all of our sponsors and participants in this year's Summer Reading Program! We hope that you all enjoyed the story times, special programs, and carnival during June and July. We had nearly 800 people, birth through adult, sign up for the Summer Reading Program, and over the course of 6 weeks, we held 60 programs and had nearly 3500 attendees. We couldn't put on such a great program without the support of our local businesses. If you see a Summer Reading Program supporter poster in a business, tell them thanks!
